- Your favorite painting and drawing mediums, especially fast drying materials like watercolors, gouache, or acrylics and inks.
- Your favorite brushes
- your favorite drawing materials, and some you are not as comfortable (a selection that may include but is not limited to markers, watercolor pencils, colored pencils or oil pastels.)
- Strathmore Visual Art Watercolor Journal, 9x12
- Other paper or surfaces you like working on (watercolor folks, bring 140lb or heavier paper)
- Masking tape
- One roll of clear packing tape
- Scissors
- Pencils and kneaded eraser
- your favorite drawing materials, and some you are not as comfortable (a selection that may include but is not limited to markers, pencils, crayons, pastels, colored pencils or oil pastels.
- Two magazines with images you like, that will be destroyed
- Copies of meaningful photographs, poems, letters, images, any 2-d or small 3-d materials that are significant for what they represent to you that you are willing to use in art pieces. Please Xerox copies of things you would like to use but don't want to destroy. You can Xerox small 3-d objects too.

Community materials:

Please bring any of the above and additional scraps and bits of paper, material, objects, broken jewelry, bits and parts that you have been saving but not using and are willing to put in the community materials pile to share with other workshop participants.
