

Dillman's

ART WORKSHOP RETREAT

Sharon Reilly

ASIAN WATERCOLOR SPONTANEOUS STYLE: INSPIRATION EVERYWHERE

September 7-12, 2020 (Four Teaching Days)

Returning for the 6th year in 2020

facebook.com/ShaseiDesignsInNature REGISTER NOW

There is no need to purchase in advance of the class if you don't have any of the following art supplies. Sharon has most supplies available for purchase during the class. Contact Sharon to discuss your needs.

Essential Supplies:

- Suzuri (ink stone) – generally 4” rectangular stone (available for purchase from instructor)
- Sumi-e stick and/or liquid ink (available for purchase from instructor)
- Watercolor tubes of primary colors: Indigo, Cadmium or Lemon Yellow, Alizarin Crimson and Chinese white or Permanent White
- 20”x40” Wool felt mat (black or ivy) - (available for purchase from instructor)
- Several Water Containers to rinse brushes (or multi-compartment container)
- 3 Small dishes to mix colors or a large palette
- a protective sheet for use under the felt (recommend a plastic table cloth or sheeting to protect tables)
- Roll of paper towels
- 1 or 2 old hand towels to place under water containers and ink stone
- If you are a messy painter, an apron
- Practice papers – newsprint, old telephone books. We will be doing lots of practicing before we begin our painting
- Any Asian Watercolor papers you may already have. You can also bring western watercolor paper if you are interested in seeing how this techniques transfers to the Western Papers.

AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE FROM INSTRUCTOR

- Asian brushes of various sizes and materials
 - a large wolf hair brush used for bold strokes
 - combination brush and
 - a fine line brush for details
 - Hake brush
- Various Asian watercolor papers
- Paperweights – to hold your very thin Asian watercolor papers in place (available for purchase in class)
- Vine charcoal – for sketching (available for purchase in class)
- Spray bottle – for washes
- MAGIC paper or Buddha Board – these use ONLY water to paint, and are great for practicing brush strokes. (also available for purchase in class)

POST OFFICE BOX 98
LAC DU FLAMBEAU
WISCONSIN 54538

715-588-3143
WWW.DILLMANS.COM
ART@DILLMANS.COM