

Plan your next business meeting or retreat at Dillman's Bay Resort

Enjoy the wonderful Northwoods without compromising the modern details and technology your event needs. Make your next event or group gathering a “true” Northwoods experience at Dillman's. Our resort and location on the shores of crystal clear-spring fed White Sand Lake are a perfect mix for business and pleasure. Dillman's specialty is small to mid-sized group events. There are accommodation options to meet every budget. Dillman's staff will be with you from beginning to end while planning your meeting.

You can get your work done, while enjoying the scenery.

Local towns of Northern Wisconsin.

The Main Lodge is perfect for a peaceful retreat.

The Chalet units are ideal accommodations.

Enjoy the Northwoods when not in meetings.

Group Recreation and Team Building

When not in meetings, let us help you experience the many relaxing and active recreational opportunities that the Lac du Flambeau and Minocqua areas have to offer. Our on-site activity coordinator will provide you with a variety of dining options and break choices tailored specifically to your needs. We can help you arrange a variety of activities and entertainment. From casual to classy, we can help you create the group setting and menu that enhance your event.

"The environment allowed us to grow together and the spouses also had an excellent time. There was so much to do at Dillman's, we did not even feel the need to leave the peninsula. The team building both professionally and socially was a great success. The staff was very accommodating"
